Handschrift Freier  Zugang

Handwritten text in a narrow column on the left side of the page, likely a marginal note or a separate entry. It is written in a dense, cursive script.

Main body of handwritten text in a dense, cursive script, covering most of the page. The text is highly legible but difficult to transcribe due to its density and the use of abbreviations.

Marginal note on the right side of the page, written in a larger, more formal script. It includes the text:
*
+ MISM 64 L
G. K. Z. B
A Bruggen...

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin, covering the majority of the page. The text is dense and difficult to decipher due to the age and condition of the manuscript.

A vertical strip of text, possibly a marginal note or a fragment from an adjacent page, written in the same medieval script.

Handwritten Latin text in a dense, cursive script, likely a manuscript page. The text is arranged in several columns and is partially obscured by a ruler and color calibration strip.

M 15164 L
G. K. Z. B
A. Bruggenbrunn

Handwritten Latin text on the right side of the page, continuing from the left page. It is also partially obscured by the ruler and color strip.
